Books of Interest and Utility.

Edited by SHERWIN CODY.

A SELECTION FROM THE BEST ENGLISH ESSAYS.

Illustrative of the History of English Prose Style. With Historical and Critical Introduction by the Editor.

The general introduction defines and analyzes the essential elements of artistic prose, and the introductions to the different essayists point out the really important characteristic of each style. The selection, too, is fortunate in giving examples of ten great styles, all different and individual, which the student of English is invited to study and imitate.

A SELECTION FROM THE WORLD'S GREATEST SHORT STORIES.

Illustrative of the History of Short Story Writing. With Critical and Historical Comments by the Editor.

Since its publication Mr. Cody's book has been adopted by twelve large universities, and a score of smaller institutions, which is a demonstration of its practical worth. Nothing just like it has ever been available, and students of literature have been quick to recognize this fact.

In form and shape these books are especially convenient, being printed on thin Bible paper, so that in spite of their extensive contents they are scarcely three-quarters of an inch thick. 18mo. Price $1.00 net; delivered, $1.06.

In Preparation.

THE BEST TALES OF EDGAR ALLEN POE.

THE BEST POEMS AND ESSAYS BY EDGAR ALLEN POE.

The publishers believe that these two volumes, especially the second one, offer the most original and striking study of Poe's art and personality ever printed. Even old students of Poe will be surprised to find in the new arrangement of Poe's criticism a detailed analysis of the general principles of novel-writing, and short-story writing, as well as the better known essays on poetry and examples of criticism of poetry, with his many pithy remarks on life and literature gathered from his journalistic book reviews. Price $1.00 net per volume.

ENGINEERING

THE CONSTRUCTOR. By Prof. F. Reuleaux.

The best practical treatise on machine design. No other book has had so great an influence upon the subject of machine design, both in Europe and America. It has been translated into every modern language. Large quarto; 1,200 illustrations; $7.50.

THE ENGINEERING INDEX.

Vol. II., an index to the contents of the technical press of the world from 1892-1895 inclusive, prepared by the Association of Engineering Societies. Octavo; 474 pages; $7.50.

THE ENGINEERING INDEX.

Volume III., a continuation of the above volume covering the years 1896-1900 inclusive. This volume indexes the contents of nearly two hundred technical newspapers, journals, transactions and proceedings during a period of five years. It indexes and describes in brief nearly 40,000 important articles published during the period it covers. Octavo; 1,030 pages; $7.50.

COMPLETE COST-KEEPER. By H. L. Arnold.

This book is designed to give such an exhibition of widely differing systems of cost-keeping as will afford any factory manager the knowledge needful to an intelligent comparison between his own methods and cost-keeping methods in general. It is essentially practical. Octavo; 440 pages; illustrated; $5.00.

ARITHMETIC AND ALGEBRA. By Lübsen.

Designed primarily for self instruction. Clear explanations and orderly development of the theme treated are the distinguishing features. Octavo; $2.00.

Can you converse

Intelligently regarding any book you may have been reading—as it you had really studied it completely? Work, a novel, a poem, a history, a biography, a drama, an oration, a sermon, or any other literary production, if read or studied as our new book tells one how, becomes a subject which one can discuss or write about in a thoroughly intelligent and comprehensive way. Enables you to size a book up so as to talk about it! Just the thing for literary societies, reading circles, as well as for the casual reader, and for teacher and pupil; also for anyone who desires to retain a symmetrical impression of the books he reads. Five editions in first five months.

THE IMPERIAL CYCLOPEDIA AND DICTIONARY.

40 VOLUMES, NEARLY 28,000 PAGES AND 7,000 ILLUSTRATIONS.

A Cyclopedia of Universal knowledge and an Unabridged Dictionary of the English Language in one alphabet—the only work of the kind.

HANDY VOLUMES—It is the only great reference Cyclopedia or Dictionary ever made in handy volumes—convenient as your pencil or eye glasses—like a pocket-knife compared with a grubbing-hoe, in contrast with the old-style clumsy quarto and octavo reference works.

REMARKABLE POPULARITY—Its unique convenience and universal scope—all knowledge; all language—cause its use many times to one of any other Cyclopedia or Dictionary that stands beside it—so librarians and teachers and users testify.

HOW POSSIBLY UP-TO-DATE—The same small-form feature is what makes possible the continual revision of the Cyclopedia, keeping it up-to-date to a degree that is not possible with Cyclopedias in the old inconvenient, unwieldy octavo or quarto form. As you never consult a dictionary by the number of its page, but always by alphabetical order, there is no need for page numbers, and in this work there are none—thus for revision purposes we can alter any page, or insert a new one, or many of them, at any point, without interfering with what precedes or follows, as one can insert a new title in a card catalogue or index. This feature is of almost infinite advantage both to the publishers and the users of the Cyclopedia.

HALF THE COST OF ANY RIVAL—Though the largest and much the latest great popular Cyclopedia and Dictionary now in the field, it is sold for less than half the cost of any work that can fairly be said to rival it. In magnitude it is about the same as the other great American Cyclopedias, costing in the neighborhood of $80.00; it is the most original and American of them all.

TRIAL OFFER.

A sample volume will be sent prepaid on receipt of 50 cents, and money returned on return of the volume if not wanted. Or the whole set will be sent for six days free examination, subject to return at the publisher's expense.

SEE THE TESTIMONY.

Excellently planned and admirably executed. No fair-minded person can fail to acknowledge its high value.—"Messenger," Philadelphia.

PRESIDENT HARPER, CHICAGO.

I desire to express my appreciation. It is certainly worthy of a position side by side with other works of this character.

PROF. DAY, OF YALE.

In all respects answers my expectations—comprehensive, accurate and compact. A prize eagerly to be sought in every intelligence-loving household.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY.

I find myself constantly consulting it. It deserves all the good things that are being said about it.—Henry Wade Rogers, LL.D., Ex-Pres. Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

FAMILY AND COLLEGE.

My family as well as myself, are much pleased with them; the size of the volumes is so much more convenient for handling than the large and heavy volumes of other cyclopedias.—G. B. McElroy, Ph.D., D.D., Adrian College, Mich.

A VETERAN'S VIEW.

In a library in the collection of which I have been engaged more than forty years, I esteem no book more highly.—Jas. L. Minor, Ex.Sec. of State and Librarian of Missouri.

THOROUGHLY RELIABLE.

I have used for about four years, and have found it reliable—thoroughly so—and exceedingly convenient to handle. I turn to it very frequently, and always with satisfaction.—Pres. James A. Grier, Allegheny, Pa.

GENERAL UTILITY.

So far as I know, there is no work of the kind that is equal to it for correct pronunciation of words, general utility, easy accessibility, satisfactory explanations, brief, but to the point.—John King, M.D., Cincinnati.

THE DOCTORS AGREE.

It meets the needs of medical men better than the more pretentious cyclopedias. I have had the American, but reference is made to yours ten times to once of the former.—George Hasty, M.D., Indianapolis.

For fullness and variety of matter in convenient shape, this excels them all. I heartily commend it.—Rev. Milton S. Terry, D.D., Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill.

FRESH ADMIRATION.

Every new volume arouses fresh admiration in us, at the thoroughness, excellence of editing and publishing—a really first-class dictionary and cyclopedia combined.—Pennsylvania School Journal."

ALL SAY THE SAME.

Although I have several, including Chambers' and Appleton's, I always refer to yours in preference.—Adrian Reynolds, Desan, Kan.

PERFECTLY IMPARTIAL.

It is not in any sense partisan or sectarian. It gives, so far as is possible, the correct outlines or analysis of the most opposite philosophies and theologies.—E. A. Huntington, D.D., LL.D., Auburn Theological Seminary.

I have carefully examined many controverted, historical and doctrinal articles, and I find them treated in a fair and scholarly manner. It cannot be called a Catholic work; but it is an impartial work—Rt. Rev. S. V. Ryan, Roman Catholic Bishop.

THE BEST OF THEM ALL.

It gives me genuine pleasure to again recommend. I have used it much during six years. After constant use, careful investigation and comparison, I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best workshop among all the cyclopedias.—W. L. Prichard, Louisville, Ky.

Just the information that nine out of every ten persons who use a cyclopedia look for. I prefer it to Johnson's or the Britannica.—A. D. Beechy, Supt. Schools, Norwalk, Ohio.

STANDS PRE-EMINENT.

Among the works that I have placed in my library there is not one that I value more highly.—W. E. Robinson, Supt. Schools, Detroit, Mich.

TWO CAPITAL BOOKS ON PARIS

By F. BERKELEY SMITH

How Paris Amuses Itself

It is a book that takes you within the gates of the Kingdom of Fun, shows you all the bright, ever moving panorama of gay Paris, and makes you a part of the frolicsome throng.

"Few men since Thackeray have succeeded in making Bohemian Paris such a living, breathing thing."—Baltimore Herald.

"It is a fascinating book which those who know Paris and those who have the pleasure of making its acquaintance in future store will alike abundantly enjoy."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"The author sets before us the very spirit and essentials of Paris."—Indianapolis News.

"There is about the whole book that air of light-heartedness and frolic which is essentially Parisian. This book is a book for everybody —those who know Paris and those who do not know it."—Philadelphia North American.

135 Captivating Pictures

by the author and several noted French artists, including Galaniz, Sancha, Cardona, Sunyer, Michael, Perenet, Pezilla, and others.

The Real Latin Quarter

Racy sketches of the innermost life and characters of the famous Bohemia of Paris—its grisettes, students, models, balls, studios, cafes, etc.

Charles Dana Gibson: "It is like a trip to Paris."

John W. Alexander: "It is the real thing."

Frederic Remington: "You have left nothing undone."

Ernest Thompson Seton: A true picture of the Latin Quarter as I knew it."

Frederick Dielman, President National Academy of Design: "Makes the Latin Quarter very real and still invests it with interest and charm."

The Argonaut, San Francisco: "A charming volume. Mr. Smith does not fail to get at the intimate secrets, the subtile charm of the real Latin Quarter made famous by Henry Merger and DuMaurier."

The Mail and Express, New York: "When you have read this book you know the 'Real Latin Quarter' as you will ever come to know it without living there yourself."

Water-color Frontispiece by F. Hopkinson Smith

About 100 original drawings and camera snap shots by the author, and two caricatures in color by the celebrated French caricaturist, Sancha.

A LITTLE GAME WITH DESTINY

"Penelope Gray," a young girl of our own day and generation, tells the story of her life in a way that is sometimes humorous, always interesting, and at times startling in its candor. It has caused a sensation because it tells the plain, cold truth. It is a book that will be read by all men and some women. 162 pages.

TWO BAD BROWN EYES

This work is justly likened to the best works of Zola, Daudet and Balzac. It bristles with trenchant wit and burns with realistic truths. 245 pages

PATRICIA

It is causing a sensation in the literary world, and should be read by every up-to-date lover of the sensational and realistic in literature. 290 pages of interesting and charming reading.

TOLD BY TWO

It is full of thrilling romance, with innumerable happenings to a giddy young married woman of New York and a bachelor from Boston. Plenty of rich, spicy dialogue—it is replete with up-to-date expletives. Lovers of realistic fiction will revel in this literary feast. 192 pages.

WITH BOONE ON THE FRONTIER;

Or, The Pioneer Boys of Old Kentucky

By CAPTAIN RALPH BONEHILL

This tale is complete in itself, but forms Volume I of the "Frontier Series." It relates the true-to-life adventures of two boys who, in company with their folks, move westward with Daniel Boone. Contains many thrilling scenes among the Indians and encounters with wild animals. Written in Captain Bonehill's best style, and will most likely be the boys' book of the season. Cloth. 12mo. Price, $1.00.

THE DEFENSE OF THE CASTLE

A Story for Boys and Girls

By TUDOR JENKS

Author of "Imaginotions," "World's Fair Book," "Boys' Book of Explorations," "Galopoff, the Talking Pony," "Gypsy, the Talking Dog," etc.

This is a good, lively, fighting story, but not bloodthirsty. It tells of a boy and girl who, during the absence of their father at the Crusades, with the help of an old soldier, defended the castle from the attack of an armed force led by a treacherous relative. The time is about that of Ivanhoe. Cloth. 12mo. Price, $1.00.
